1. Call to order
2. Approval of Agenda 6:35 pm
3. School Report
 - Staffing changes - Mrs. Head will not be replaced and the staff has been shuffled to accommodate the new teaching assignments. Staff will also be reassigned in the 2nd semester. Mr. Goertzen will teach art through construction, Mrs. Gallant will teach high school English and Alex McLean will cover the afternoon social class.
 - Some discussion was held around informing parents about the Sept 30 cut-off enrollment date.
 - Budget: our budget was cut and some shuffling of funds has been made to accommodate this shortfall.

- Some conversation was held around transporting athletes to events, as a cost-saving measure. We may have to start looking at how student-athletes are transported.
- Grad Events - a very successful grad auction was held on Nov 7th and raised about $5800.
- Christmas Coffee House (tentative) an open call has been put out to students to see who would like to volunteer. The callout will start tomorrow on Tuesday (Nov 19th)
- Operation Starvation - raised $5000 and will be held this coming weekend (Nov 22-23rd with about 100 students taking part.
- Social/Dance update - Susan W will send out the dress code once it is received from Bianca Elias (gr. 10 student). There was some discussion around what to call the school dance and who would be allowed to attend. It was decided that grades 10-12 would be permitted to attend. There will be an approved playlist used for the dance/social approved by the school administration.
- Lorna Dyck - will be in to present the program called Community Helpers
- Connectivity goal - Foosball tournament (Nov 21st) and pep rally school assembly with teams & clubs being introduced (Nov 28th).

4. Chairperson's Report:

LCPS is still actively looking for a Jr. B-boys team. coach. A coach will hopefully be found by the end of the week.
